

La Commissione Europea a supporto dell'emergenza educativa

Relatori: Dott.ssa Hannah Grainger Clemson e Dott. Michael Teutsch

Qualifica e curriculum scientifico del relatore	Rappresentanti della Commissione Europea    Michael Teutsch is Head of Schools and Multilingualism in the Directorate-General Education, Youth, Sport and Culture of the European Commission. His unit provides policy development support to ministries of education, management of the Erasmus+ programme for schools, VET and adult learning, and management of online platforms (eTwinning, School Education Gateway, EPAL) offering direct support to teachers, schools and other education stakeholders.    Hannah Grainger Clemson works for the European Commission as Schools Policy Officer, co-ordinator of the ET2020 Working Group Schools, and moderator of a new Distance Learning Network for school education. She has previously worked as a teacher, including mentoring new teachers, before moving to university-based education research and teacher education.
Abstract dei contenuti formativi/informativi del webinar	English In this webinar representatives from the European Commission will present an overview of the different challenges that school education systems are facing during the COVID-19 crisis, and how the Commission has been supporting policy makers, schools and teachers. These challenges include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>➤ supporting teachers and learners in online and distance learning approaches;</li> <li>➤ infrastructure;</li> <li>➤ assessment and examinations;</li> <li>➤ supporting disadvantaged learners;</li> <li>➤ the various steps to closing and re-opening schools. As a constantly evolving situation, the experiences are diverse within and across countries, however many common issues and ideas for the future are already emerging.</li> </ul> The discussion will be useful for anyone interested in a broad European perspective of the impact of the pandemic on school education. Italiano In questo webinar i rappresentanti della Commissione Europea presenteranno una panoramica delle diverse sfide che i sistemi di istruzione scolastica stanno affrontando durante la crisi da COVID-19 e

	di come la Commissione Europea stia supportando i decisori politici, le scuole e gli insegnanti in questo periodo di emergenza sanitaria. Tra le sfide più impegnative si individuano: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>➤ il supporto a docenti e studenti nella didattica online e a distanza, le infrastrutture,</li> <li>➤ la valutazione,</li> <li>➤ gli esami,</li> <li>➤ il sostegno agli studenti svantaggiati,</li> <li>➤ le varie fasi legate alla chiusura e alla riapertura delle scuole.</li> </ul> Essendo una situazione in costante evoluzione, le esperienze sono diverse tra i vari paesi europei e anche all'interno degli stessi paesi. Tuttavia, stanno già emergendo molte questioni comuni e si sta lavorando per progettare il futuro. Il webinar si rivolge a chiunque sia interessato a approfondire in prospettiva internazionale l'impatto della pandemia sull'istruzione scolastica.
Data ed orario svolgimento del webinar	13 maggio 2020 - ore 17,00
Lingua	Inglese